GETTING the MOST OUT of YOUR DAILY BIBLE READING

EVERYTHING WRITTEN IN THE SCRIPTURES WAS WRITTEN TO TEACH US, IN ORDER THAT WE MIGHT HAVE HOPE THROUGH THE PATIENCE AND ENCOURAGEMENT WHICH THE SCRIPTURES GIVE US. | Romans 15.4 (Good News Translation)

As you read the Bible each day, allow the Scriptures to speak to you. This daily “dialogue” between you and the biblical text will reveal new understandings about God, and about yourself.

Set aside time to read the Bible on a daily basis.

Find a quiet place to read and reflect on each day's reading.

Begin with prayer, asking God for guidance and blessing.

Here are some suggestions to guide you in your daily reading:

Read the passage for the first time without stopping in order to gain an overall sense of what is being said.

Read the passage a second time, asking yourself questions about the text: In what book of the Bible is this passage found? Is it a prophetic book? A historical book? A book of poetry? A Gospel? A letter? Who are the main characters? Where do the events take place? What key words or phrases are repeated? What is the intent or purpose of the passage?

Read the passage a third time, reflecting on these questions: What did I learn about God? What did I learn about human nature? What did I learn about my own relationship to God? I believe that God is inviting me to

You are urged to read the Bible and share it with others. For a free catalog of other Scripture publications, call 1.800.32.BIBLE, go to www.bibles.com or write us at American Bible Society, 1865 Broadway, New York, NY 10023–7505. AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY
Sharing God's Word with the World

If we declare that Jesus is the Son of God, we live in union with God and God lives in union with us. ... God is love, and those who live in love live in union with God and God lives in union with them.
