HOLSEY CHAPEL RECOGNIZED AT "FACE OF HUNGER" BANQUET

FITZGERALD, GA, SEPTEMBER 11, 2007: On August 28, 2007, the Food Bank of Southwest Georgia held its annual "Face of Hunger" Banquet. The event provides an opportunity for the agency to recognize its partners in servicing the community needs. The Food Bank of Southwest Georgia (FBSWGA) serves as the headquarters for HUNGER-RELIEF in Southwest Georgia. When there's a disaster such as tornado, flood, fire and so on, our member agencies contact us to get what they need in a timely manner to serve those in need. FBSWGA provides food to our member agencies who in return serve people living at or below the poverty level and/or who are at greatest risk of hunger. These people include working poor families, low-income and abused children in special programs, senior citizens, the disabled, the homeless, and victims of domestic violence. A year ago, Holsey Chapel C.M.E. Church joined the list as a resource for Fitzgerald and Ben Hill County. During the banquet, the church received an award for successfully distributing 3,596 pounds of food "giving hope and feeding families." Annie Pearl and William Stepherson attended the banquet in Albany, Georgia and accepted the award on behalf of the church.
